Editorial

The fourteenth volume of the Institute Research Journal, Tech Tonics 14 is a compilation of scholarly research papers and articles written by students of MCA (Master of Computer Applications) course of TIMSCDR. The contents of the research papers and articles of this edition pertain to the application of Information Technology in various domains such as Agriculture, Medicine, Environment etc.

The Journal showcases the research endeavors of Post Graduate level students on sustainability in general and how it is managed in the domains of Agriculture and Medicine in specific. In the Agriculture domain, sustainable agriculture involves taking care of the soil and water resources and using Agro and Information Technology tools and techniques to enhance the produce without damaging the environment. Similarly, in the Medical domain, various protocols, applications, and tools have revolutionized Healthcare towards a more sustainable provision to meet the needs of people from every sector. IT has played a pivotal role in making Healthcare sustainable. Right from the provision Electronic Health Records to the facility of e-Consultations and use of AI and Robotics in medical case analysis and surgery respectively, IT has taken a giant leap to ensure sustainability in Healthcare.

To ensure originality of the research work, the research papers and articles were thoroughly checked for plagiarism and then selected for publication. The students got an opportunity to understand the relevance of standard research work through this academic exercise.

The fourteenth edition of Tech Tonics, Research Journal is a modest effort to encourage the young, enthusiastic and resourceful minds of the students to do research using latest techniques and innovate and pen down emerging ideas in the field of Information Technology and its diverse Applications.
